What is Coaching? — Life Reimagined
We are all participants in one of the most significant social movements of our time: We're creating a new phase of life. For many it happens at midlife, but in fact a Life Reimagined moment can come at any age. It renders obsolete the myths and conventions of the past 50 years — the old story that has defined our trajectory and constrained our choices for the second half of life.

?Life Reimagined with Wendy Deacon on Apple Podcasts
What I love about Life Reimagined is that it's not Life Reinvented. You don't have to become someone different or transform yourself into someone else. You just have to imagine the possibilities and learn how to make them a reality. And you can do this even if you're in your 30s and 40s. Why wait to live the life you want?
