Lifrasir Wars

In Norse mythology, Lif and Lifprasir, sometimes anglicized as Lif and Lifthrasir—female and male respectively—are two humans who are foretold to survive the events of Ragnarök by hiding in a wood called Hoddmimis holt, and after the flames have abated, to repopulate the newly risen and fertile world. Lif and Lifprasir are mentioned in the Poetic Edda, compiled in the thirteenth century from earlier traditional sources, and the Prose Edda, written in the 13th century by Snorri ...
