of opposites working for and against one another, and of one woman ' s quest to find her place in this world of magic. ” – John Ottinger III, Grasping for the Wind “ Neuemier has opened up a new sub-genre of fantasy in her dealing of the griffin mythos, which is no mean feat.

Spiritual Warfare: The Four Winds & Prayer ...

Lord of the Changing Winds is basically a dragon book, with griffins. I mean this in the best way – I love dragon books, and Ms. Neumeier ' s take on fantastical creatures (especially the winged, fire-driven variety) is a memorable one. The lore of the griffins, ...

Winds Prayer is prayer you pray, prompted by the Holy Spirit, in the name of Jesus – commanding the four winds to change direction, to counter or to stop blowing completely. There are different kinds of warfare strategies and prayers and this is one of them.

Book Review: Lord of the Changing Winds by Rachel Neumeier Praise for Lord Of The Changing Winds: The Griffin Mage: Book One. Neumeier's writing is beautiful. It's lyrical and sumptuous - Paul Magrs. This is a fantasy novel of strong depth and a welcome assuredness, and one that is definitely worth recommending to genre fans as something bright and fresh -
