Mercruiser 454 Engine Noise

Hi guys, I have a 454 mercruiser mag efi engine that started knocking last year. It almost sounds like a connecting rod but we wont go there. I have a video of another guys engine with the same knock as mine but his is much louder.

chevy 454 knocking noise

After about 30 seconds of idling a loud knocking noise started. Shut her down, checked around the back of the engine thinking that the gear shift cable must be snagging on something but was all fine. The noise seems to be coming from the port side of the engine towards the transom. Best way I can describe it is a loud metallic knock.
