Edition: Vampire: The Masquerade – 20th Anniversary Edition (V20) Once, Charlotte was an unremarkable town in the center of North Carolina. During the Civil War, military factories transformed the city into an industrial powerhouse. Charlotte did not cling to a romanticized vision of its antebellum past after the war, but instead embraced closer commercial and cultural ties...

Montréal, called the "City of One Thousand Steeples" by its inhabitants, is the second-largest city in all of Canada and the largest city in the province of Québec. Gothic-Punk Montréal is a city of subtle and unmistakable dread, where abandoned buildings and run-down churches cower in the shadows of skyscrapers. While not as violent as a city like Detroit, for example, its corruption runs ...

Montreal by Night by Philippe Boule - Goodreads

I think Montreal By Night was good in showcasing how a Sabbat city would be different than the Camarilla, and the "big secret" in the setting is good. What's bad is that 1) the characters are ridiculously overpowered, and 2) it's a hodgepodge of every single Clan and Discipline including vampires that shouldn't be in the Sabbat.
