My first impression of the book of "Wonder" by R.J. Palacio is truly amazing. This book tells a lot about why you should treat people the way you want to be treated. I choose this book because I heard it was just amazing. First, I thought I would not like it at all; then I started to read it and my first impression was wow.

My First Book of Space: Developed in conjunction with NASA ...

My main issue was that the book uses advanced words that would be silly to teach a baby. For example, instead of just baby horse" it says "baby foal", and “kit” instead of “baby bunny”. I want my baby to be linguistically advanced, sure, but this is just going to confuse a very young child.
