that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God. 20 Therefore no one will be justified in His sight by works of the law. For the law merely brings awareness of sin. 21 But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been revealed, as ...

The complete review's Review: . In No God In Sight the narrative zips along in hot-potato fashion, jumping from one character and/or narrator to the next, each piece and person somehow connected -- and ultimately coming around again to where it started. There are dozens of sections, each centred on a different person and ranging in length from a few sentences to a few pages, an almost all ...
