Atlas Games: June 2006

Atlas games is a longtime and staunch supporter of breakthrough ideas in gaming, as the publishers of Over The Edge, and Unknown Armies. I was somewhat surprised and pleased to find that NYAMBE embraces these same pioneering spirit and marries it to the widest possible audience using the d20 System.

The game I got the most play from is probably 7th Sea (Alderac Entertainment Games), since that was a regular, reliable campaign that went on for at least four years. It's the campaign I have most enjoyed playing in my life. The game that I have been playing the longest and continue to play is Over The Edge (Atlas Games).

This may have to do with the fact that Nyambe was around as a web-based supplement for a long time before it was printed. In general, headers look like headers, boldface and other emphasis are used appropriately, and the layout looks professional. It's what you'd expect from Atlas Games (makers of Ars Magica, Feng Shui, Unknown Armies, and others).
