Re: larsen 180 sport vs stingray 180 rs I have a 2002 Stingray 190LS with the 4.3l and love it. It is a great boat for tubing, skiing,etc. Stingray's are lighter and have a fast hull design. They are not designed for larger lakes, tend to ride pretty rough. Most owners add sport tabs. I also would recommend a 4.3L versus 3.0.

Re: Tell me the truth about Larson... I have a 2006 208 LXI and love it. It's my 5th boat. I have had a Mastercraft, Stingray and (2) Four Winns. The larsen has the nicest interior of any and the MPI engine makes it even better. The Mastercraft and Stingray were more sport boats and the ride was rough, both Four Winns listed to the right.

From my perspective, I really liked the boat. Fit and finish were good, had nice features and I had no structural issues with the vessel. I have heard Larson compared to like a Pontiac of the boat line, if Sea Ray and Cobalt are like the top, Larson is a good mid-line model. We owned the boat from 2003 to 2008 and used it a lot.
