Papa Bear : The Life and Legacy of... book by Jeff Davis

The story of Bronko Nagurski and many more like him, is recounted with unabashed awe and affection by Jeff Davis in " Papa Bear: The Life and Legacy of George Halas." Halas was a nasty, vindictive, phenomenally tightfisted man who created professional football as we know it: he midwived the National Football League into existence after failing to land the right fielder's job with the Yankees in 1919.
