parting shot, a. A final insult hurled as one is leaving, or the last word in an argument. Most authorities agree that this term is a distortion of Parthian shot, alluding to the ancient Parthians (first century b.c.), renowned archers and horsemen, who would turn in flight to discharge arrows at the pursuing enemy.

'Parting shot' - meaning and origin. -

Phrasefinder

Parting Shot is a companion novel to the Paradise Falls trilogy by Linwood Barclay, and like those novels, I marvel at Barclay's brilliance. Two characters return from the trilogy, the detective and the investigator. Written in third person for the detective and first person for the investigator, I appreciated and had no troubles following this stylistic change.
