"Perfect Peace" is Oz's best novel I read so far. Prior to that, I only read one novel and a novella written by him. I can't help but compare the thoughts I had after reading those pieces of work. Even though I think that this book was a rewarding experience, I still feel that that experience was lacking.

St. Martin's Press review 1: Perfect Peace by Daniel Black was a real page turner for me. I finished it in three or four days as the story unfolds about the Peace family. The mother, who was a victim of abuse by her mother, wanted a little girl so badly that she decided to take her seventh son and dress him as a girl.
