The Creation - Bible Story Summary and Study Guide

The present has to be our goal, because it is the only thing that exists. The big tease: Your mind will open up part way from time to time to give you a taste of true life, and then take it away. It will attach the open moments to things that are hard to do, like things that cost a lot of money, things that are difficult or dangerous, or things that the mind considers to be new or special.
