Prospero Burns: Abnett, Dan: 9781844167777: Books - Amazon.ca

First off, Prospero Burns is NOT a bad book. I found the story very engaging and it tells a lot about the culture of Fenris and the Space Wolves. This book is packed with suspense. But all that being said, I don't think it belongs in the cover it's in. This seems like more of a prelude to the Burning of Prospero, rather than a book about it.

In other words, he's us. See what I mean? Not necessarily a great Horus Heresy series book, but a superb WH40K book and a great dark sci-fi book full stop. 'Prospero Burns', I now reiterate, is probably my favourite Dan Abnett book so far and it's a masterpiece of 40K fiction. I give it an unreserved 10/10. New to PurpleHeresy?
