British and Roman coins are not uncommon,¹⁸ and the general impression gained from them is that, while the autonomous gold, silver and even billon continued to circulate fairly steadily during the first century A. D., the Roman bronze almost at once came into its own as supplying the need for a token coinage.

Hoards - Forum Ancient Coins
The fresh condition of the Minster Lovell coins suggests a date, for this hoard at least, not long after a.d. 43. Every one of the nine recorded hoards closing with Claudius's coins was found south of the Fosse Way, and therefore
