Rome A History In Seven
This is a brief history of the seven sackings, not a history of Rome as revealed via the sackings. By that I mean the focus is on the sackings, understandably, and not some essential quality of Rome or Romans (other than the obvious one of survivors) with the historical growth and development of the city more in the background.

History. Tradition holds that Romulus and Remus founded the original city on the Palatine Hill on April 21, 753 BCE, and that the seven hills were first occupied by small settlements that were not grouped. The seven hills' denizens began to interact, which began to bond the groups. The city of Rome, thus, came into being as these separate settlements acted as a group, draining
