Runaway, Runaway is a crime novel based on Peter May's real experiences of running away from home in Glasgow seeking fame and fortune in London with members of a musical group that he was part of in the 1960s. The story is told through two storylines, one in 1965 in which five teenagers embark on a trip that ends with tragic consequences, and ...

When I was a runaway by Peter May + CRIME FICTION LOVER
I have read all of Peter May's books with great enjoyment - with the exception on this novel - which I found difficult to come to terms with. Perhaps it was the story itself, the era involved and the type of characters, or I may not have been in a receptive mood when starting it.
