Culture Matters: How Values Shape Human Progress (2000) by Lawrence Harrison and Samuel Huntington A renewed interest in culture among social scientists at the end of the 20th Century points to an interesting paradox in the evolution of cultural theories. During the mid-1900s, the views of 'social anthropologists'

Harrison is basically an interesting discussion about how cultural values affect the progress of societies. I can't say that there were a lot of answers to why some societies are able to develop easier than others.
