Ward ' s art is probably the real star; he rethinks Greek mythology from the ground up, reconsidering what science and architecture would look like without men, and painting it all in a gorgeously psychedelic style. The heightened, epic sci-fi world makes it the rare space opera that ' s also wonderfully operatic.

Sci-Fi Art: A Graphic History: Steve Holland, Alex ...

Sci-Fi Art: A Graphic History is largely an artbook that attempts to cover a 150-year-period of science-fiction art history, by showing examples of said art in different time periods and contexts. It succeeds mostly in this, keeping the informative text to a minimum, and the layout of the book has been designed in a manner that pulls most attention to the art, first, instead of to the (largely) unobtrusive text.

The Best New Sci-Fi Graphic Novels
At their best, comics (and their thicker brethren, graphic novels) combine deep, thoughtful storytelling with real works of art. I'm glad to see that great comics are still being written and drawn (and inked
