Shadow's Edge (Night Angel, #2) by Brent Weeks

Shadow's Edge is the second book in Brent Weeks' Night Angel trilogy and, for me, it was much improved over the first book (and I liked the first book, too). There was much less confusion about plots in this one, there are epic triumphs to match the epic tragedies, and the characters continue to be fleshed out.

Shadow's Edge continues the Night Angel Trilogy, and if you liked the first book, you will like this one. The story of Azoth continues as he becomes a full fledged assassin, and falls in love. Shadow's Edge doesn't fall into the boring middle book trap that happens to some trilogys. The story is good, and so is the narration.
