She Is Not Invisible - Marcus Sedgwick

She Is Not Invisible is a book narrated entirely from the perspective of a character who is blind from birth and yet it is not a book about blindness or one that uses her blindness as a gimmick 1. It is a rather raw story about a young teenager who goes out into the world and puts herself out there.

Summary and reviews of She Is Not Invisible by Marcus Sedgwick

What other book might you compare She Is Not Invisible to, and why? Difficult, as I've not read anything quite like it! It is similar in some ways to Haddon's 'The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time' in that the story follows two unusual children on a quest to solve a mystery, but they are certainly more charming than poor old ...
