What is the heart, according to the Bible?
When the prophet Nathan reproved him of his sin, David accepted the words of God (2 Samuel 12:1-13). Those words broke his heart and he repented of his sin, asking God to "Create in me a new heart" (Psalm 51:10). Is your heart repentant, soft, and serving like that of David, or is it impenitent and hard Ephesians 5:27 The problem of sin is in man's thinking, which is why God says the problem is in the heart—in the mind.

Humans are limited to thinking what is in their minds. If we have God's Word in our minds—along with the Holy Spirit—then there is a good chance that our minds will begin to change, to become circumcised, as

What the Bible says about Sin Begins in the Heart

Though that is true, I do not believe that is the supreme issue when it comes to our Father's heart! May I illustrate. I also play the role of father, a role given to me from God Himself. When my children sin, when they miss the mark, that bothers me as a father.
