The Sporting Gentleman - Glen Mills, PA | Groupon

In a Regency era story I've been working on, my hero is a sporting man. Whatever the sport, he loves it: Fencing, boxing, fishing, shooting—they're all on my hero's list of favorite things to do. While researching different sports that were popular at the time, I came across a reference to the sport of hare-coursing....

Unfortunately for the dapper gentleman, shooting apparel has dwindled in the same sense that men stopped wearing slacks and blazers in the 50s and 60s and reverted to sweatpants and hoodies as being the socially acceptable attire for a day out. However, there is a contingent of us still who enjoy dressing for the event, and there's no reason we can't wear traditional country attire for a day of shooting.
