Welcome! - Holwell Village

For centuries village life throughout England has been centered on the Parish Church - and Holwell was no exception. There must have been some primitive place of worship in the village when the Saxon King Edgar granted the charter in 968. It is believed that there have been four churches on the same site since that time.

St Peter - A Church Near You

Holwell is a small village and a civil parish two miles north of Hitchin in Hertfordshire, England, near the Bedfordshire border. At the 2011 Census the population of the village was 362. The church is unusual and, although largely rebuilt, retains some Perpendicular features and an interesting brass to Richard Wodehouse. The school, almshouses, and rectory are all in a similar Tudor style ...
