The Stories By Jane Gardam - book review | The Independent

This lethally calm account introduces "Rode by All with Pride," one of the finest creations in The Stories of Jane Gardam, a volume that spans the years 1977 to 2007. Varying in mood from frivolous to dark (though with Gardam's wit never totally lightless), this collection includes a couple of ghost stories and fables, an elegy and some vignettes alongside more substantial offerings.

Jane Gardam - Wikipedia

Jane Gardam has a wonderful knack of making you feel the emotion of the character often by some quirky detail in just a few words leading to insight and understanding, I have heard her stories on the radio and read some of them many years ago, they still go round in my head so buying this compilation book of stories is an affirmation of my former pleasure, like revisiting loved places.
