T-Mobile Is Bringing Back the Sidekick, Sort of

A long time ago I bought a sidekick and got the tmail email address with it. Later I used that email to make an account on the PSN. I am no longer a t-mobile customer and haven't used the email for years now, but I need to access it so I can reset the PSN account's password and switch it to a new email address.

I think I like this sidekick a little more than the main washer. I almost didn't buy it but So glad I did. I can't believe how often I use it. It cleans really well, perhaps better than the main washer. It's great if you forget to put something in the main washer, or for random color clothes that don't go in your main load.
