Tenebrism By A D Truax

I am completely in love with this series. I hate to admit it, but at first I thought the basic premise of Tenebrism sounded kinda cliché: Regular college kid (Alan) kisses a stone statue on a dare, only to have the statue come to life before his eyes. Turns out, statue guy (Keyd) is actually a warrior from another world whose people are engaged in an epic battle of "light" vs. "dark" which is ...

2 quotes from A.D. Truax: 'You lying liar,' Vaan said, "who lies to me with lies. Nobody actually likes Shakespeare! They just pretend to sound more cultural and pretentious.' and 'Keyd,' I said, and his head tilted questioningly in the dark. "I really am sorry about kissing you." He pulled back. Not just physically, but...something about him just went distant and withdrawn.
