well. Douglas Stone & Sheila Heen 2. When we ask people to list their most difficult conversations, feedback always comes up. We swim in an ocean of feedback. 3. When we give feedback, we notice that the receiver isn't good at receiving it.

Thanks for the Feedback

Which is why saying - and meaning - Thanks for the feedback is such a crucial skill and courtesy. You want the giver to know you have heard and value their feedback. Not only to show appreciation (feedback often takes lots of courage to give), but also to encourage the person to keep on giving your feedback.
