Scrap quilts hold a beloved place in dedicated quilters' hearts, repeating a few shapes in hundreds (sometimes thousands) of different fabrics. Their informal, homespun beauty recalls a time when quilters dug into their scrap bags and asked their friends for castoff materials as they pieced their odds and ends into a work of art. Also known as postage stamp quilts or charm quilts, we love to ...

I live in a sleepy little New England town perched on the Connecticut shoreline at the halfway point between New York and Boston. Living in this idyllic location has its perks. Just a 15-minute drive on the interstate and I'm at the world-class Yale Art Museum. Ten minutes in the opposite direction sits a gorgeous state park with miles of beaches and trails to explore. And, if I strap on a ...
