The Business Style Handbook - Wikipedia

First, a small business company handbook is the same thing as any other employee handbook. Every business, no matter how small, has policies and expectations they want to set for their workers. It provides guidelines on interacting with customers, sets standards for workplace behavior, and defines the rights workers have under federal, state or municipal laws.

The Business Analyst's Handbook

It's a simple small business handbook that explains a bit about the company and then goes through many of the sections we've just discussed. It's just 12 pages long and quite readable, and there are also some nice personal touches—check out the “Team Secrets” page at the end. Some companies also choose to take things a bit further.
