The debut book of the Dark Iceland book series written by bestselling author Ragnar Jonasson is entitled 'Snowblind'. It was released by the Orenda Books publication in the year 2015, following its first release in 2009. The book's English translation has been done by author Quentin Bates.

The Darkness, Hidden Iceland by Ragnar Jonasson ...

"The Darkness," by Ragnar Jónasson, ably translated by Victoria Cribb, is Icelandic noir at its most riveting and unnerving. Aside from Hulda's aforementioned investigation, Jónasson, in separate chapters, depicts the heartrending plight of a desperate single mother who sees her baby only through a pane of glass.

The Hulda Series - Ragnar Jonasson

"The Darkness" is original, compelling, unforgiving and completely believable. This is Scandi-Noir at its best. I passed on Ragnar Jonasson's Dark Iceland series after reading "Snowblind". I found the detective too bland and the plot too much of a stretch. His new series, "Hidden Iceland" fixes all that.
