The Death of Bees - Wikipedia
The Death of Bees by Lisa O'Donnell hooked me from the start. I read this book over the course of one day, totally unwilling to put it down. The Death of Bees is about Marnie and Nelly, who have buried their not-so-wonderful parents in the backyard of their (potentially project) house.

The Death Of Bees Lisa
With a book such as "The Death of Bees", a book centered on neglected, possibly abused kids, the death of their parents and the subsequent involvement of social services, there's a danger of excessive sentimentality or sinicism. "The Death of Bees" avoids this and is genuinely comic at times.
