The Fiery Trial is organized chronologically. Beginning with Lincoln's time in the Illinois legislature in the 1830s, it goes through his congressional term in the 1840s, discusses his increasing role as the leader of the Republican Party in the 1850s, continues through his presidency during the Civil War, and speculates about what might have happened had he not been assassinated and instead had overseen the Reconstruction.

The Fiery Trial - Wikipedia
The Fiery Trial is the eight short story in the Tales from the Shadowhunter Academy bind up. This short story is definitely my least favorite. Not because it's not action packed or interesting; because it really is. It's because there was so much action and so interesting that it became too much and very, very confusing.
