Psalm 145:18 The LORD is near to all who call on Him, to ...
Being in the presence of God is where every Christian should desire to be. AS we draw near to Him, His love feels stronger. It wraps us like a warm blanket, and we experience his joy and peace. Our hearts beat in sync with His, and our eyes begin to see what He sees. The best part is that if we draw near to God, He will draw near to us.

How Do We Draw Near to God? - Life Action
Drawing near to God is the key to unlocking every door that seems shut in your life. The rewards of drawing near far outweigh any sacrifice of time. Through the Holy Spirit, He is waiting to show you special insights into the problems that you face today. He wants to help you know and walk in perfect truth and strength.

When God Draws Near Us | ThePreachersWord
Christians draw near to God by cleansing our hands, because all are sinners without Christ. If you are disconnected from God, this is because of one's sins (Col 1:21). Believers draw near to God by purifying their hearts no longer remain doubled-minded.

The God Who Draws Near - God's Word For You

The degree of comfort and assurance (or instruction and conviction) we draw from those near us is wholly contingent on who it is that has drawn near. For some, that God is near resembles more a threat than a promise. My friend's perception of God at that moment was perhaps closer to Julian Huxley's than King David's. For Huxley, God resembled "not a ruler, but the last fading smile of a cosmic Cheshire cat." For David, God's nearness was clearly thought his good (cf. Psalm 73:28).

God draws near to us | From the Inside Out

James 4:8 admonishes, "Draw near to God and he will draw near to you." Drawing near suggests that God welcomes us to seek Him. To come to Him. To commune with Him. To communicate with Him. To enjoy fellowship with Him. In fact, Paul pictures God as calling us to leave behind the darkness of sin, and the fellowship of the world, and to come to Him.
