Hairy Toe excerpted from Spooky Maryland retold by S.E. Schlosser Once there was an old woman who went out in the woods to dig up roots to cook for dinner. She spotted something funny sticking out of the leaves and dug around until she uncovered a great big hairy toe. There was some good meat on that toe which would make a real tasty dinner, so the old woman put it in her basket and took it home.

The Hairy Toe

A large black cloud crept over the moon and from the woods a hollow voice rumbled: "Hairy toe! Hairy toe! I want my hairy toe!" Inside the old woman stirred uneasily in her bed and nervously pulled the covers up over her ears. From the woods there came a stomp-stomp-stomp and the wind whistled and jerked at the treetops. In ...
