Half-Earth: Our Planet's Fight for Life is a 2016 book by the biologist E. O. Wilson, in which the author proposes that half of the Earth's land be designated a human-free natural reserve to preserve biodiversity. Wilson noted that the term "Half-Earth" was coined for this concept in a Smithsonian article "Can the World Really Set Aside Half the Planet for Wildlife?"

THE HALF-LIFE OF PLANETS is also about family and loss, with Liana's hypochondriac dad and emotionally distant mother, and Hank's journey through family and unaddressed grief. It is a book about a boy who loves music and a girl who loves science as much as it is about a failing self and a stunting disability.
