The L Shaped Room Jane

The L-Shaped Room is one of those books that was incredibly brave and daring for its time (1960) and I feel like I would have perhaps enjoyed it a lot more had I read it back then. I didn't really warm to the main character Jane very much, a young pregnant woman who has been kicked out of her family home by her father.

British 60s cinema - The L-Shaped Room

She moves into a house that is divided up into various apartments each with their respective character type. There's also the obvious romance angle but I won't say more that could ruin the movie for someone else. The L-Shaped Room is about 2 hours but despite it's lack of action, I felt it moved along nicely and held my attention.
