The Gift of a Listening Heart | Kirk H. Neely

The wisdom Solomon received through his dreams is the same wisdom we can receive every night through our dreams. The Hebrew word for what Solomon asked for and received is shama, which is a “hearing” heart (see 1 Kings 3:9,11). He asked for a listening heart, one that could clearly hear the Lord’s direction and guidance.

His Word: In order to actually "hear" from God, we have to know some things about God's character. We have to develop an understanding of who God is and the way he does things. Fortunately for us, all that information is available in the Bible. The Book goes into a lot of detail about how you can expect God to react, what kinds of expectations he has for us, and most specifically, how he expects ...

Bonhoeffer writes, “Just as love to God begins with listening to his Word, so the beginning of love for the brethren is learning to listen to them.” Good listening goes hand in hand with the mind-set of Christ (Philippians 2:5). It flows from a humble heart that counts others more significant than ourselves (Philippians 2:3).

Hearing God's Voice - AllAboutPrayer.org

A lot of people can't hear God because they're afraid to hear God speak. Maybe you think that hearing God's voice or sensing his leading makes you some kind of religious fanatic. 3. Bitterness. When you hold on to hurt, resentment, or a grudge, you're not going to be able to hear God, because your heart is hardened.

The Listening Heart: Hearing God in Prayer: Judy Gordon ...

One sure way to know if you're hearing God's voice is to line up what you hear against the Word of God. God will never tell you to do, think or say anything contrary to His Word. If you have a thought and you don't know if it's God or not—you can look it up in the Bible and settle it right away.
