What Is Christian Mysticism? Jesus came to introduce us to an internal reality. He has that in common with mysticism. And while Jesus did mystical things (i.e. healing and miracles), this was not his stated purpose. His stated reason for coming was to introduce us to what he called the "kingdom of God" or "eternal life."

PAUL'S CHRIST MYSTICISM Jesus said to his disciples that "the knowledge of the mysteries of the Kingdom of heaven has been given to you" (Matt. 13:11, Mark. 4:11 and Luke 8:10). The Apostle Paul too speaks of the "mystery of Christ" and the "mystery of the Gospel" (Eph. 3:4, Col. 4:3 and Eph. 6:19).

What is Christian mysticism? | GotQuestions.org
One thing I've noticed is that mysticism tends to be an individual, subjective practice that depends on feelings and subjective thoughts, whereas biblical Christianity is both an individual relationship with Jesus Christ and one that's lived out in community, or in the Body of Christ, the church, so "His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness ...

The Mysticism Of Jesus Christ And His Apostles
The Christ with whom Paul is united is not the man Jesus who is known "after the flesh." He has been exalted and glorified, so that he is one with the Spirit. Christ-mysticism appears again in The Gospel According to John, particularly in the farewell discourse (chapters 14-16), where Jesus speaks of his impending death and of his return in the Spirit to unite himself with his followers.

Mysticism - The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints
In his originally overlooked book, The Mysticism of the Paul the Apostle, Albert Schweitzer attempts to set to explain Paul's theology as mystical, where the believer is mystically united with Christ, which he labels as Christ-mysticism. 1 He sets this pattern of mysticism in contrast to other forms of Hellenistic religious patterns, such as Stoic pantheism and the mystery religions 2 and ...

The Cosmic Christ - Center for Action and Contemplation
The deadly deceptions of mysticism arrogantly advertise a way of direct access to the All Holy God and thereby repudiate any need of the Lord Jesus Christ, the One Mediator between God and men. The believer's worship and approach to God is in the Lord's own words to be with "all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind."
