Mao is a card game of the shedding family. The aim is to get rid of all of the cards in hand without breaking certain unspoken rules which tend to vary by venue. The game is from a subset of the shedding family and is similar in structure to the card game Uno or Crazy Eights. The game forbids its players from explaining the rules, and new players are often informed that "the only rule you may be allowed to break is this one". The ultimate goal of the game is to be the first player to get rid of ...

The rule of faith is the set of standards that define a religion.
Biblical Christianity holds the Bible to be its only rule of faith. The rule of faith may be different for different groups. In some cases standards are similar. In others, what may seem similar actually presents a vast and significant distinction.

Mao (card game) - Wikipedia

The Rule of Two was a Sith philosophy established by Sith Lord Darth Bane in order for the Sith to operate in secret and eventually get revenge on the Jedi Order, following their near annihilation in the Jedi-Sith War. Inspired by the concept of a Force dyad, the Sith Lord mandated that only two Sith Lords could exist at any given time: a master to represent the power of the dark side of the Force ...

The Word of God the Only Rule of Faith and Practice

The statement that the Bible is the "only rule for faith and practice" is rooted in the sufficiency of Scripture, as revealed in 2 Timothy 3:16-17: "All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work."
