Since the release of Faces, Places, many Q&As have focused on Godard's haunting absence in the film. JR has suggested that it may have been Varda's question, to Godard's assistant, while making arrangements for the meeting to take place – “does he still have his dark glasses” – that made him recoil and change his mind about meeting up altogether.

Jean-Luc Godard – Wikipedia ti?ng Vi?t

While his truly radical period would come in the 1970s with films like Tout va Bien (1970), Godard's early films demonstrate that his ideological stances were stalwart from the start. As the world of cinema evolved into something more weighty and prescient, Godard helped to incite the movement that would change the critical realm for years to come.
