The Stone Monkey Chapter One
They were the vanished, they were the unfortunate. To the human smugglers—the snakeheads—who carted them around the world like pallets of damaged goods, they were ju-jia, piglets. To the American INS agents who interdicted their ships and arrested and deported them they were undocumented. They were the hopeful.

The stone monkey volunteers and jumps into the waterfall. He finds a large iron bridge over rushing water, across which is a cave. He persuades the other monkeys to jump in also, and they make it into their home. Sun Wukong then reminds them of their prior declaration, so they declare him their king.
