The Truth About Forever Introduction | Shmoop

The Truth about Forever is to the date my favorite book from Sarah Dessen. As I've always said Dessen (I can't help but say it again) conveys emotions very well and more in this book. Another strong point for me in this book is that there's very few stories that you can read that starts in a summer and when the summer ends, it gets to wrap everything important and don't leave you craving for more.

The Truth About Forever by Sarah Dessen - Goodreads

There's a lot happening in The Truth About Forever. In fact, I think it's the most complicated book I've written, and it was definitely the hardest. Part of this may be because I suffer from a terrible case of perfectionism myself, which led to this awful irony of realizing that I was writing a book about embracing imperfection, and yet I wanted it to be perfect.
