The Wasp Factory

The Wasp Factory that the title refers to is a mechanism invented by Frank, consisting of a huge clock face, salvaged from the local dump, encased in a glass box. Behind each of the 12 numerals on the clock face is a trap which leads to a different ritual death (for example burning, crushing, or drowning in Frank's urine) for the wasp that Frank puts into it via the hole at the centre of the clock face.

The Wasp Factory Themes | LitCharts

The Wasp Factory . The Wasp Factory is Frank/Francine's means of making sense of his dark, confusing, twisted world. Believing himself/herself castrated as a child because of a vicious dog attack he ostracizes himself from other boys. Over time this sense of "otherness" worsens when his/her brother, Eric is committed to a mental institution.
