This is my second of these tide-temperature-compass Timex Expedition watches. Every sailor should have one, if only for the tide watch. My other one is a well-used black model that I had bought used a couple of years ago. This silver-colored one is far prettier than my beat up old black workhorse. Here's affordable elegance and practicality.

Computers have often been used as fictional objects in literature, movies and in other forms of media. Fictional computers tend to be considerably more sophisticated than anything yet devised in the real world. This is a list of computers that have appeared in notable works of fiction. The work may be about the computer, or the computer may be an important element of the story.

The FA20E and FA20F engines have a cast aluminium alloy cylinder head with chain-driven double overhead camshafts per cylinder bank. The four valves per cylinder – two intake and two exhaust – were actuated by roller rocker arms which had built-in needle bearings that reduced the friction that occurred between the camshafts and the roller rocker arms.
