The Top Secret game is based exclusively on 10-sided dice. All character attributes and other statistics are percentiles; some scores are rolled, and some are derived from combinations of two or more other scores. Top Secret also features Areas of Knowledge, which function similarly to skills in more modern RPGs. Characters gain experience points and progress upward in level.

Top Secret: New World Order

Top Secret was the first RPG I bought and ran, with all the subtlety and intrigue a 13-year-old could muster. Mutliplayer gunfights galore! Someday, I hope to give this module the light touch that it wants. As for the NPC codes, they seem to cross locations and affiliations willy-nilly.

Video where I discuss the topic title here.. If you're like me, you enjoy RPG Horror Stories as a bit of a guilty pleasure. I'm an avid reader of r/rpghorrorstories and have a few of my own. It's almost a rite of passage to have your sneak attack taken away by a neophyte GM who thinks they know more than the entire design team at Wizards, or to play with a player who conveniently forgot to ...

Top Secret RPG - rpg - Reddit

First released in 1980, it was written by Merle M. Rasmussen, a writer of somewhat mysterious pedigree. That is, he appears to have debuted on the RPG scene as the creator of Top Secret and, with the exception of a couple of D&D modules in the mid to late 80s, to have done little else in the field. I always wondered what became of him, but, after doing some digging and checking with my contacts, I've not been able to find out any more about the man behind one of my favorite early RPGs.
