The Bible verses referenced by Calvinists describe man's sin nature, not a condition of Total Depravity or Total Inability. Total Depravity is Disputed by Scripture The existence of God has been manifested in every person in his unregenerate (unsaved) state by the attributes of God clearly seen in all of His creation so that no one is without excuse for rejecting the eternal Godhead.

Lesson 15: Total Depravity (Genesis 6:5; 8:21) | Bible.org

The Total Depravity of Man By Gerald E. Cumby The title of this paper has a very negative connotation to it. In fact, the subject matter, as the reader might see it, portrays man without hope, without a possibility of reprieve, and without a future in which to better or sustain himself. It places man in the estate with practically the lowest of ...

Total depravity | Courageous Christian Father

Total Depravity: Although fallen persons are capable of externally good acts (acts that are good for society), they cannot do anything really good, i.e., pleasing to God (Rom. 8:8). God, however, looks on the heart. And from his ultimate standpoint, fallen man has no goodness, in thought, word, or deed. He is therefore incapable of contributing anything to his salvation. John Frame To know this ...
