TRADITIONAL CHINESE VETERINARY MEDICINE

Traditional Chinese veterinary medicine (TCVM) is the ancient veterinary treatment of animals based on the same theories as traditional Chinese medicine (TCM). TCM and TCVM have developed over a period of over 3,500 years and are practiced all over the world. In Western cultures such as the U.S., TCVM has rapidly grown as an adjunct

Fundamentals Of Traditional Chinese Medicine

In general, Western medicine believes in control, while traditional Chinese medicine believes in balance; Western Veterinary Medicine is more mechanistic, while TCVM is more energetic. Western medical practitioners are very familiar with analyzing a disease process to discover its specific, fundamental, physical cause, whether this be an infectious agent, an enzymatic defect, or a toxic insult.
