Book Review: Triumph of The City - Adventures in CRE

Notes on Triumph of the City , conclusion. – “The move to low-density living ended up being far more sensitive to nature than [Hugh !] Ferriss’s vision of a towering metropolis.” And here we rise to the book’s peaks of intellectual dishonesty. But for the provisions of the Clean Air Act and Clean Water Act,...

Book Notes: Triumph of the City: How Our Greatest ...

One of his key examples for the triumph of the city is Silicon Valley which takes quite a bit of bending before one can subsume it under the term "city". What he actually means is known as a development theory developed by Michael Porter or Paul Krugman (both absent in Glaeser's book) intellectually and in the bibliography).
