Among the notable offspring were Vicky's son Kaiser Wilhem II, Alice's daughter Tsarina Alexandra, Vicky's daughter Queen Sophie of Greece and Beatrice's daughter Queen Ena of Spain. While Victoria's sons belonged to Great Britain, her daughters were a way for Victoria and Albert to spread their influence over the continent. I questioned why the author restricted his scope to just the daughters, but this made more sense with an explanation of Prince Albert's dreams for a more
